

TVHD should be freely available to all and not only to the ones that can afford it I am a senior citizen living on my pension and don't believe that I should be denied HD just because I cannot afford it, sky makes enough money without pushing this their way as well.
George Nesfield.