

Micro FM transmitters these devices are designed to facilitate easy connection between audio sources (such as digital audio devices and MP3 players) and normal FM broadcast receivers by way of a radio link. Ofcom proposes to permit the use of these devices on a licence-exempt basis;

Please implement ASAP, ETSI standard EN 301-357 provides the way forward