

Please ensure that silent calls are stopped forthwith and that organisations concerned in their creation are made to leave a message and contact number.

Additionally anon cold calling calls are a nuisance and call some measure of distress to all those receiving them who do not want them. I was forced to register for the mailing and telephone preference services to stop these calls and still have to have anon call rejection in use all the time to stop cold calls from unscrupulous organisations.