

I am not in favour of the creation of a public service provider we already have an adequate public service output in the form of the BBC, we do not need fund yet another quango