

COMMUNICATIONS PROVIDER IDENTITY (“CUPID”) CODE APPLICATION

CUPIDs (previously known as Licenced Operator Identity – LOPID – codes) are three-digit codes of the format eg. ‘625’ that may be used for administrative purposes.

CUPIDs may be a prerequisite on specific forms used by the electronic communications industry to request services such as Number Portability arrangements, Data Management Amendments (DMA), orders on phone book entries, etc.

Definitions and Interpretation

1. Save where the context otherwise requires, words and phrases used in this Application Form shall have the same meaning as in the Communications Act 2003, the General Conditions of Entitlement set by the Director from time to time under section 42 of the Communications Act 2003, or the National Telephone Numbering Plan.
2. The Interpretation Act shall apply as if this Application Form were an Act of Parliament.

(Applicants should ensure that all sections have been completed where relevant – incomplete Application Forms may not be processed within the 3-week deadline).

Form S17 - Annex A

A1. Confirmation of Status:

Oftel generally only allocates Telephone Numbers to providers of Public Electronic Communications Networks.

Oftel may also allocate numbers, in circumstances where the provider has been unable to obtain a sub-allocation from a provider of a Public Electronic Communications Network and where number resource implications do not preclude allocation, to providers of Public Electronic Communications Services. Oftel would also normally expect to see that the provider has arrangements in place for its service to be carried over a network.

In order to determine whether or not you are a provider of a Public Electronic Communications Network, Oftel needs certain information from you. Please provide details of:

- a) the Electronic Communications Network on which the Telephone Numbers applied for are intended to be Adopted;

(a diagram may be useful to assist Oftel in assessing your eligibility for Telephone Numbers).

- b) the Electronic Communications Service which you are intending to provide over that network;

Please note that it is not Oftel's intention for a Communications Provider to be assessed more than once to determine whether or not it is a provider of a Public Electronic Communications Network. Therefore if you have answered yes to Question A4(a) below, you do not need to answer questions A1(a) and (b) above, or

In order to determine whether or not you are a provider of a Public Electronic Communications Service, Oftel needs certain information from you. Please provide details of:

- c) the Electronic Communications Service, which you are intending to provide with the Telephone Numbers applied for. Please also provide details of the network on which the numbers you are applying for will be Adopted.

A2. Applications from providers of Public Electronic Communications Services If you are applying for Telephone Numbers as a provider of Public Electronic Communications Services, Oftel would expect your company to have already taken reasonable steps to obtain a sub-allocation of Geographic Numbers from a provider of a Public Electronic Communications Network. a) Would you explain what steps you have taken to obtain a sub-allocation of Telephone Numbers, instead of the Telephone Numbers for which you are applying. b) Why did you not obtain a sub-allocation?

A3. Interconnection arrangements Describe your Interconnection arrangements (or those of the provider of a Public Electronic Communications Network on whose network the Telephone Numbers applied for would be Adopted), if any, with other Communications Providers – a simple network diagram may be useful.
---	--

A4. Register of providers of Public Electronic Communication Networks Oftel maintains a voluntary register of providers of Public Electronic Communications Networks. Would you state: a) whether your company is listed on this register; b) under which name your company is registered; and c) if different from b), what is the 'trading name' under which your company will sub-allocate the Telephone Numbers applied for in this application?
