

United Kingdom ship radio or United Kingdom ship portable radio amendment and surrender of a licence – OfW347a

For a quicker service you can make changes directly online at <https://ofcom.force.com/licensingcomlogin>. Registering is easy and we have published guidance to help you. This entitles you to a free licence.

Who should use this form?

You may use this form to make an amendment or surrender a UK ship radio licence or a UK ship portable radio licence. A separate form should be used for each type of licence. Only one licence can be applied for on each form.

Please refer to the 'Ship radio guidance notes' Of168a when filling in this form.

Conditions

Under the Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006, you must have a licence issued by Ofcom before you establish or use any ship radio and ship portable radio equipment.

Registering

Please note that ship radio and ship portable radio Licence applicants are encouraged to register and apply for and print their radio licences via the Ofcom website www.ofcom.org.uk.

Communication preference

Where possible, we send correspondence to licensees electronically. This is quicker for you and cheaper for us. By applying online and providing your email address, we assume that you wish to receive correspondence and notifications relating to Wireless Telegraphy Act licences electronically and not on paper.

If you do not wish to receive documents electronically, you must opt out by ticking the 'Letter' box.

Completing this form

When completing this application please refer to the notes and complete in dark ink in BLOCK CAPITALS.

All fields are mandatory unless stated otherwise. If you do not provide a telephone number and email, it may delay the processing of this form. If you need to supply further information or clarification, please write on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this form.

Further information is available in 'Ship radio information' Of19a.

Important

Maritime radio transmitting radio equipment may be operated only or under the direct supervision of the holder of the appropriate Maritime Radio Operator's Certificate or Competence and Authority to Operate. Details of these are available from the Maritime and Coastguard Agency (MCA).

The radio equipment is covered by this licence must meet certain performance requirements as described in Section 4 of the guidance notes.

Payment

A fee of £20 will be charged for each ship radio Licence and each ship portable radio Licence. Registering and applying online using the Amateur Radio and ship radio Licensing portal at www.ofcom.org.uk/manage-your-licence is completely free of charge.

Payments must include all bank charges. If Ofcom does not receive full payment, it will return any partial payments received.

How we use your data

We require this information in order to carry out our licensing duties under the Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006.

Please see Ofcom's General Privacy Statement for further information about how Ofcom handles your personal information and your corresponding right: www.ofcom.org.uk/about-ofcom/foi-dp/general-privacy-statement

The information held by Ofcom will be updated as appropriate by relevant numbering records provided by Inmarsat, Accounting Authority Identification Code records by the (Maritime Radio) Accounting Authorities and EPIRP/PLB records provided by the MCA.

The information is provided by Ofcom to the International Telecommunications Union (ITU) and the Maritime and Coastguard Agency (MCA) to assist in Search and Rescue operations and to help ensure that the information held by the ITU and MCA is accurate and up to date. This information may also be provided by Ofcom to law enforcement agencies (such as the police) for crime and taxation purposes as well as the Maritime Administrations MCA Channel Islands and the Isle of Man. We will keep your information confidential and will not disclose it to third parties, except where we are required to do so by law or where we have obtained your consent in advance.

Please note that in general, licensing details of ship portable radio licences are not sent to the ITU.

* If necessary, list additional Inmarsat mobile numbers and Satellite Standard type on a separate page and tick to confirm attachment.

(Receive-only navigational equipment other than radar transponders (e.g. GPS) does not need to be declared on this form.)

Additional identification numbers

If you require an additional MMSI number supplied only for Portable VHF DSC equipment tick this box

New name of VHF DSC Portable MMSI number vessel (if applicable)

D. Changes to radio equipment details (Ship Portable Radio Licence only)

Please tick the box in column 4 to indicate the type of equipment to be carried. The Ship Portable Radio Licence authorises only one piece of each type of equipment

1. Equipment	2. Frequency Band (MHz)	3. MMSI (see note) or HEX ID (for 406 MHz EPIRBs)								4. Tick as appropriate
Hand held VHF radiotelephone	156 to 163	2	3	5	9
MOB - DSC	156.525	9	7	2
MOB - AIS	156 to 163	9	7	2
AIS SAR Transmitter	156 to 163	9	7	0
EPIRB AIS	156 to 163	9	7	4
EPIRB or PLB	406 / 121.5
Personal Locator Beacon	121.5
Aeronautical SAR equipment	121.5 / 123.1

Notes

The Ship Portable Radio Licence does not authorise standalone use of radio apparatus. Apparatus must be used in association with a ship (including small craft such as dinghies and kayaks).

You must supply a UK MMSI if there is one. This may have been issued by us or programmed in the set by the manufacturer.

Hand held VHF radiotelephones

If you do not supply an MMSI for a hand-held VHF radiotelephone (e.g. because it is new or you do not use DSC) we shall issue one. You must ensure that the MMSI used in the apparatus is the one that we assign on the licence.

MOB and AIS

If you indicate that you will be carrying an MOB DSC, MOB AIS, AIS SAR Transmitter or EPIRB AIS but fail to provide an MMSI for each item carried, we shall contact you for the missing MMSI(s). This may delay your application.

E. Changes to 406 MHz / 1.6 GHz EPIRB / PLB registration details

Applies to both Ship Radio Licence and Ship Portable Radio Licence

E1. Fill in all boxes where changes are required:
