Additional comments:

Question 1: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to ?adult-sex? material needs to be clarified? b) Do you agree with our proposed amendments to the rule on ?adult-sex? material (Proposed Rule 1.18 to replace Rule 1.24)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed amendments, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) Yes it needs to be clarified to close abuse and loopholes which encourage pushing boundaries all the time.

b) No

c) The code needs to prevent anything that is likely to influence or corrupt particularly with regard to children whether or not it is the main intent of the programme.

It is manifestly clear that the requirements of section 1.1 of the current rules is not being achieved and that even promoting non-explicit sexual behaviour as some sort of norm by the media is creating huge social problems and corrupting the morals of our children and young people.

Question 2: a) Do you consider that the introduction of a new rule in relation to material of a strong sexual nature is appropriate? b) Do you agree with our proposed rule on material of a strong sexual nature (proposed Rule 1.19)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new rule, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a & b) It does not go far enough for any programme that is accessible to children and that includes at night.

I know many children and young people whose parents do not stop them from watching TV into the early hours of the morning. One could argue that this is a matter of parental responsibility but it is the children that are being damaged.

See response 1 above.

Question 3: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to material equivalent to the BBFC R-18 rating needs to be separated from the rule in relation to R-18 rated works? b) Do you agree with our proposed rule on material equivalent to the BBFC R-18 rating (proposed Rule 1.17)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new rule, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) No - if the material is equivalent to R-18 in terms of what is portrayed, it should not be allowed through just because of the context. That would be a barn door which would be difficult to close.

b) No

c) as above

Question 4: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to pre-watershed material needs to be clarified? b) Do you agree with our proposed amendments to the rule on pre-watershed material (proposed Rule 1.20 to replace Rule 1.17)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed amendments, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) It needs to discourage unsuitable material but if a programme promoted the concept that it is OK for young school children to experiment with sex, sexual acts do not have to be shown graphically to cause damage.

Question 5: a) Do you consider that the associated revisions are appropriate following the other rule revisions outlined above? b) Do you agree with our proposed associated revisions in Section One? c) If you do not agree with our proposed revisions, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

Question 6: a) Do you wish to suggest an alternative approach to the proposed set of rules in relation to sexual material? If so, please outline your proposals, which should comply with relevant legislation (including the Communications Act 2003 and the European Convention on Human Rights).:

You need to go back to "Material that might seriously impair the physical, mental or moral development of people under eighteen must not be broadcast." and figure out what effect the content of a programme will have on impressionable children and under 18s. Note that the word is MATERIAL and that means overall context. I would argue that many of the programmes that are broadcast during the day have the capacity to do great damage because of the way sex is treated.

Programmes that seek to sexualise children and young people by creating an environment which creates peer pressure or makes it fashionable to be immoral or unwise are probably more damaging as those that just show sex as a mechanical activity with no context at all.

Question 7: a) Do you consider that the introduction of new rules in relation to competitions and voting is appropriate? b) Do you agree with our proposed new rules in relation to competitions and voting (proposed Rules 2.11 to 2.13 to replace Rule 2.11)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new rules, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

Question 8: a) Do you consider that the introduction of new meanings in relation to competitions and voting are appropriate? b) Do you agree with our proposed new meanings in relation to competitions and voting? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new meanings, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

Question 9: a) Do you wish to suggest an alternative approach to the proposed set of rules in relation to competitions and voting? If so, please outline your proposals, which should comply with relevant legislation (including the Communications Act 2003, the Audiovisual Media Services Directive, the AVMS Directive (Implementation) Regulations 2009 and Article 10 of the European Convention on Human Rights.:

Question 10: a) Do you consider that the rules on commercial television would benefit from being separated from those for radio? b) Do you agree with the introduction of the proposed new Section Nine on commercial references in television programming? c) If you do not agree with the proposed new Section Nine, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

Question 11: a) Do you consider that it is appropriate for Ofcom to include the enforceable provisions relating to product and prop placement, replicated from the AVMS Directive (Implementation) Regulations, as rules in the revised Code? b) If you do not consider this to be appropriate, please explain why.:

Question 12: a) Would you consider that it appropriate for Ofcom to introduce rules that would allow Public Information Programming (as described above)? If so please explain why. If not, please explain why not. b) If Ofcom were to introduce rules in relation to Public Information Programming: i. Are there any potential programmes that you believe could comply with the potential rules but that you consider would be undesirable or arguably not in the public interest? If so, please give details. ii. What impact (e.g. social, economic, equality) do you think the potential rules would have on viewers, the television industry and any other parties? iii. Do you consider that the potential rules would maintain the editorial independence of the broadcaster and provide adequate consumer protection? If not, please explain why. iv. Do you consider that additional or alternative safeguards to those included in the draft potential rules are necessary? If so, please provide details.v. Specifically, should there be any restriction on the type of non-commercial, not-for-profit entities permitted to fund Public Information Programming, and if so, what restrictions? vi. Do you consider it would be appropriate for Ofcom to review these rules two years after their introduction? If not, please explain why.:
