

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No - Not if by default people are assumed to have opted-in.

It should be that if people want this service, they should be the ones to obtain and display a sticker.

It unfair to make the people who are happy with the status quo the ones who have to do something extra to obtain the service they had before.

All Royal Mail needs to do is send out stickers to everyone and let people put them up if they are happy for items to be left elsewhere.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
