Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information asking for a list of all call signs.

We received this request on 12 January 2021 and have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the Act").

You asked:

Under the Freedom of Information Request please would you provide me with a list of ALL the call signs that have an entry in the Ofcom database.

Would you please indicate:-

- 1. Current status e.g. Available, Allocated, etc,*
- 2. What type of licence they have been allocated, Foundation, Intermediate or Advanced*
- 3. How long they are reserved for*
- 4. When they were allocated*

Our response

Please find attached a list of call signs, with the requested information 1), 2), 3) and 4) indicated in the relevant columns of the attached spreadsheet.

I hope this information is helpful. If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Roshni Narayanan

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
