b) I would prefer that this material were not broadcast at all, but the wording is clearer as proposed.

Question 2: a) Do you consider that the introduction of a new rule in relation to material of a strong sexual nature is appropriate? b) Do you agree with our proposed rule on material of a strong sexual nature (proposed Rule 1.19)? c)

If you do not agree with our proposed new rule, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

- a) I think that a rule relating to material of a strong sexual nature is appropriate.
- b) I think that the new rule is too open-ended and is not suitable for protecting children under 18 who in most homes have access to TV after the watershed some nights of the week.
- c) I do not believe that the wording "primary purpose of sexual arousal or stimulation" is sufficiently broad. If that is a likely consequence of the broadcast then it should not be broadcast at all. Film-makers have been pushing the boundaries between mainstream and pornography for many years and I am not satisfied that the wording covers situations where sexual arousal/stimulation is not the primary intent but likely to be a secondary effect particularly with under 18s.
