

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

NO,

I understood the Royal Mail charter which I assume still covers delivery stated after an item was posted it was the responsibility of RM to deliver to the address on the item,if non deliverable to be collected from the sorting office or re delivered,

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

I can foresee problems with items going astray,a sticker on a door is not good enough to let the postie know items shouldn't be left elsewhere, what's to stop kids moving the stickers between homes? Just imagine the chaos in a block of flats.

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:

In past years I've asked posties in the street who knew me if they had post for me & they've said they were only allowed to deliver to the address on the item
