

Number of telecoms operators

Thank you for your request for information dated 14 March about how many licensed telecoms operators there are in the UK which has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act.

We do not hold the information you have requested as we do not licence communications providers. However, you may find Ofcom's mobile numbering plan useful in providing further information – this gives details on allocations and availability of UK Telephone Numbers and prefixes who they are allocated to. The Ofcom numbering plan can be found on the 'Ofcom Numbering Site' in the following link: <http://www.ofcom.org.uk/static/numbering/#pers>

I hope this information is of some help.

Kind regards
Julia

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Graham Howell
The Secretary to the Corporation
Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
