

Request for information

Thank you for your request for information dated 5 January for a list of maximum acceptable bids for each of the ITV regions. This has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

By way of background, in February 1991 the ITC advertised the one national and fifteen regional Channel 3 licences, and issued an Invitation to Apply document for each of the licences, stating all the terms and conditions. The decisions were made by the ITC Chairman and Members collectively. The award of the Channel 3 licences was announced by the ITC Chairman on 16 October 1991.

Turning to your request, we do not hold a list of “maximum acceptable bids for each of the ITV regions”. This is because no maximum acceptable bids were set. You may find it helpful to look at the Invitation to Apply document which contains information and guidance to those wishing to apply – please see the following

I hope this information is helpful.

Kind regards
Julia Snape

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Graham Howell
The Secretary to the Corporation
Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
