Section 216 of the Communications Act

Renewal of the Licence

- (1) Subject to the provisions of section 228(6) and (7) of the Communications Act the Licence may be renewed for a period of ten years from the end of the Initial Licensing

Period and each Subsequent Licensing Period current at the time of the application.

- (2) The Licensee may apply to Ofcom for renewal of the Licence not earlier than four years before the date on which it would otherwise cease to be in force and not later than three months before the Relevant Date.
- (3) Subject to the provisions of Section 216(11) of the Communications Act, Ofcom may decide not to renew the Licence if:

 - (b) it proposes to grant a fresh regional Channel 3 licence for the provision of a service replacing the Regional Channel 3 Service which would differ from the Regional Channel 3 Service in:

 - (ii) the times of the day, or days of the week, between or on which it would be provided;

 - (ii) paying the amount of the Renewal Payment as increased by the Appropriate Percentage in respect of each subsequent year falling wholly or partly within the Renewal Period;
 - (iii) paying an amount, determined under Section 217(1)(b) of the Communications Act, representing a specified percentage of qualifying revenue in respect of each accounting period of the Licensee falling within the Renewal Period;

is such that it would not be in the public interest for the Licence to be renewed; and Ofcom having referred the Licensee's renewal application to the Secretary of State together with a copy of all documents submitted to it by the Licensee and a summary of its deliberations on the application, the Secretary of State has refused to consent to the renewal on the grounds that the source of funds is such that it would not be in the public interest for the Licence to be so renewed.

Section 217 of the Communications Act

- (4) On the grant of any such application Ofcom shall determine:
 - (a) the amount of the Renewal Payment; and

- (6) Where the Licensee accepts Ofcom's determination under Condition 25(4) above, he shall notify Ofcom of his acceptance and, subject to Condition 25(3) above, Ofcom shall grant a renewal of the Licence as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter but Ofcom shall not grant a renewal more than eighteen months before the end of the Licensing Period.
- (7) If the Licence is renewed pursuant to this Condition, it shall continue in full force and effect and Conditions 5 and 34 shall have effect during the Renewal Period as if:
 - (a) in respect of the first complete calendar year falling within the Renewal Period, references to the amount of the Cash Bid were to the amount of the Renewal Payment;
 - (b) in respect of each subsequent year falling wholly or partly within the Renewal Period, references to the amount of the Cash Bid as increased by the Appropriate Percentage were to the amount of the Renewal Payment as increased by the Appropriate Percentage; and
 - (c) in respect of each accounting period of the Licensee falling within the Renewal Period references to the Relevant Percentage of Qualifying Revenue were to the percentage of qualifying revenue determined by Ofcom under Condition 25(4) above;

provided that, notwithstanding renewal, the Licensee shall continue to pay the amount of the Cash Bid (or, where the Licence has already been renewed, the existing Renewal Payment) as increased by the Appropriate Percentage for the year in question by equal instalments.
