

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No. I would not want my neighbours to receive my mail without my permission. It's bad enough that they can already take in courier deliveries without my knowledge. Most post would fit through the letter box, and anything that wouldn't I would prefer to collect from my local sorting office as usual. I would be much more confident I would receive my post, rather than something being stolen by a neighbour.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
