Do you have any comments on Ofcom's proposed changes?	Confidential? – N The TLCS licence might benefit from greater clarity, where appropriate, regarding EPG/EPG provider requirements (as is done for example already in Condition 9(2)). For instance, with regards to the proposed introduction of general licence Conditions 2(2) (f) and (g), which are derived from the ECTT, should these information requirements also apply to EPG providers given the application of the ECTT? The proposed changes to Condition 11(1) (enabling EPG providers to provide EPG data in human readable form rather than sound and vision) do not appear to have been carried through consistently to Condition 11(2). For example, 11(2)(a) and (b) still refer to recordings and (c) refers to scripts and transcripts of programmes.
