Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information regarding TV licences.

This was received by Ofcom on 4 December 2018 and it has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act).

You asked:

Could I please have the number of TV licences issued by year, since the start of 2016, by month. If possible, could I have the data region specific i.e North East, North West etc.

It is our understanding that your request relates to TV licences which are required to watch or record programmes on a TV, computer or other device as they're broadcast, and to watch on-demand BBC programmes. Ofcom does not hold the information you have requested. TV licences are issued by the BBC, and more information regarding making an FOI request to the BBC on this subject can be found here: <https://www.tvlicensing.co.uk/about/freedom-of-information-act-foi-AB14>.

If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Catriona Lawrence

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

Switchboard: +44 (0)20 7981 3000 or +44 (0)300 123 3000
