What do you want Ofcom to keep confidential?:

Keep name confidential

If you want part of your response kept confidential, which parts?:

Ofcom may publish a response summary:

Yes

I confirm that I have read the declaration:

Yes

Ofcom should only publish this response after the consultation has ended:

Yes

Additional comments:

Question 1: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to ?adult-sex? material needs to be clarified? b) Do you agree with our proposed amendments to the rule on ?adult-sex? material (Proposed Rule 1.18 to replace Rule 1.24)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed amendments, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) It should be clarified so that people know exactly what it means.

b) No.

c) I would not want any material of that kind to be broadcast. I believe porn is addictive and can lead to many more rapes and other crimes.

Question 2: a) Do you consider that the introduction of a new rule in relation to material of a strong sexual nature is appropriate? b) Do you agree with our proposed rule on material of a strong sexual nature (proposed Rule 1.19)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new rule, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) Yes but b) not in the way it is here.

c) It seems that the watershed is irrelevant now considering the material that is broadcast. A great number of children have TVs in their bedrooms and spend a lot of time on their computers so they could easily watch inappropriate programmes. I am very concerned that Ofcom wants sexual material to be broadcast earlier. Any programmes of that kind will lead to children having sex earlier because of curiosity. I thought the government wanted to stop teen pregnancies and STDs - if these kind of programmes are on TV its certainly the wrong way of going about it! They are very naive if they think otherwise.

Question 3: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to material equivalent to the BBFC R-18 rating needs to be separated from the rule in relation to R-18 rated works? b) Do you agree with our proposed rule on material equivalent to the BBFC R-18 rating (proposed Rule 1.17)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new rule, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) No.

b) I believe this material should not be available at all for the reasons above.

c) Why has material equivalent to R18 not already been classified as R18? It should not be separated. The BBFC is leaving it up to adults to decide what they should watch but what about children? It is a FACT that once this material has been sold, under age children are obtaining DVD copies. As I said before, the internet is the easiest way of gaining access to inappropriate material therefore it is vitally important that BBFC classification is strengthened and made more publicly accountable in order to dramatically reduce violent and sexual content. This would be helpful to Ofcom.

Question 4: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to pre-watershed material needs to be clarified? b) Do you agree with our proposed amendments to the rule on pre-watershed material (proposed Rule 1.20 to replace Rule 1.17)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed amendments, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) Yes.

b) No.

c) Sexual material prewatershed cannot be justified. Also it is not necessary or desirable post watershed considering the harmful damage it can cause, which has been researched.

Question 5: a) Do you consider that the associated revisions are appropriate following the other rule revisions outlined above? b) Do you agree with our proposed associated revisions in Section One? c) If you do not agree with our proposed revisions, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) No.

b) No.

c) There should be a more definite code for many reasons most importantly though for children who could be listening/watching at any time! Also for the term 'adult' which seems to mean that anything goes. Its a very demeaning term as its saying that all adults over 18 like obscenities and immorality. The joys of family life seem to be out-dated and laughable according to that term.

The modern 'must have' technologies undermine parental authority. Warnings and labellings are virtually useless. Media literacy is meaningless to a great number of struggling parents, especially one parent families.

Question 6: a) Do you wish to suggest an alternative approach to the proposed set of rules in relation to sexual material? If so, please outline your proposals, which should comply with relevant legislation (including the Communications Act 2003 and the European Convention on Human Rights):

a) Clear cut rules which would allow producers to work in a well-defined framework and reduce the risk of inappropriate material being shown in the first place.

b) Independent scientific research should be provided and acknowledged that shows the effects of sexual material on viewers.

Question 7: a) Do you consider that the introduction of new rules in relation to competitions and voting is appropriate? b) Do you agree with our proposed new rules in relation to competitions and voting (proposed Rules 2.11 to 2.13 to replace Rule 2.11)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new rules, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate:

Question 8: a) Do you consider that the introduction of new meanings in relation to competitions and voting are appropriate? b) Do you agree with our proposed new meanings in relation to competitions and voting? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new meanings, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate:

Question 9: a) Do you wish to suggest an alternative approach to the proposed set of rules in relation to competitions and voting? If so, please outline your proposals, which should comply with relevant legislation (including the Communications Act 2003, the Audiovisual Media Services Directive, the AVMS Directive (Implementation) Regulations 2009 and Article 10 of the European Convention on Human Rights):

Question 11: a) Do you consider that it is appropriate for Ofcom to include the enforceable provisions relating to product and prop placement, replicated from the AVMS Directive (Implementation) Regulations, as rules in the revised Code? b) If you do not consider this to be appropriate, please explain why.:

Question 12: a) Would you consider that it appropriate for Ofcom to introduce rules that would allow Public Information Programming (as described above)? If so please explain why. If not, please explain why not. b) If Ofcom were to introduce rules in relation to Public Information Programming: i. Are there any potential programmes that you believe could comply with the potential rules but that you consider would be undesirable or arguably not in the public interest? If so, please give details. ii. What impact (e.g. social, economic, equality) do you think the potential rules would have on viewers, the television industry and any other parties? iii. Do you consider that the potential rules would maintain the editorial independence of the broadcaster and provide adequate consumer protection? If not, please explain why. iv. Do you consider that additional or alternative safeguards to those included in the draft potential rules are necessary? If so, please provide details.v. Specifically, should there be any restriction on the type of non-commercial, not-for-profit entities permitted to fund Public Information Programming, and if so, what restrictions? vi. Do you consider it would be appropriate for Ofcom to review these rules two years after their introduction? If not, please explain why.:

Question 13: a) Do you consider that the proposed new Section Nine would benefit from the introduction of new meanings? b) Do you agree with our proposed new meanings for Section Nine? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new meanings, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

Question 14: a) Do you consider that the introduction of new Principles in relation to Section Nine is appropriate? b) Do you agree with the proposed new Principles for Section Nine? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new Principles, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

Question 44: a) Do you agree with the proposed approach which only proposes changes to Section One of the Code in relation to material of a sexual nature, only proposes changes to Section Two in relation to Competitions and Voting, and proposes no changes to Sections Three to Eight. b) If you do not agree with our approach, please explain which other sections of the Code you consider should be reviewed and why. c) Do you agree with Ofcom's approach which will be to provide, and update, guidance to all sections on an on-going basis? If so, are there particular areas where you consider an updating of guidance would be helpful?:

a) No.

b) I believe that Section 2 Harm and Offence should be reviewed too.

c) An updating of guidance would be helpful but providing "non-binding assistance to producers to apply and interpret the Code" will not be helpful in "the exercise of effective control". Subjective decisions would still be required as the Code is basically faulty. As well as sexual content, the Code should be reviewed on anti-social behaviour, drug taking, etc. as there is a mass of evidence to show that kind of thing leads to harm.
