

Direction under Section 106(3) of the Communications Act 2003 revoking a direction applying the Electronic Communications Code in the case of Cambridge Water plc

A Notification of this proposal was published on 15 October 2009

Whereas:

- A. On 19 June 2003, the Secretary of State granted Cambridge Water plc a licence under section 7 of the Telecommunications Act 1984 (the '1984 Act') authorising Cambridge Water plc to run a self provided telecommunications system (as defined in the 1984 Act) and applying the telecommunications code (as set out in Schedule 2 to the 1984 Act) to Cambridge Water plc;
- B. By virtue of section 106 of the Act, which came into force on 25 July 2003, the telecommunications code is now known as the electronic communications code (the 'Code'), which is set out in Schedule 2 to the 1984 Act as amended by Schedule 3 to the Communications Act 2003 (the 'Act');
- C. By virtue of paragraph 17 of Schedule 18 to the Act, Cambridge Water plc is treated after 25 July 2003 as a person in whose case the Code applies by virtue of a direction (the 'Deemed Direction') under section 106(3) of the Act;
- D. Ofcom have received an application from Cambridge Water plc dated 24 September 2009 for the revocation of the Deemed Direction in accordance with section 115(2) of the Act;
- E. On 15 October 2009, Ofcom published a notification of their proposal to revoke the Deemed Direction by way of a further Direction under section 106 in accordance with sections 107 and 115 of the Act;
- F. Ofcom did not receive any representations about their proposal;
- G. For the reasons set out in the explanatory statement accompanying this Direction, Ofcom are satisfied that in making this Direction they have acted in accordance with their relevant duties set out in sections 3 and 4 of the Act;

NOW, therefore, pursuant to section 106 of the Act, Ofcom make the following Direction-

1. The direction applying the electronic communications code to Cambridge Water plc under section 106(3) of the Act by virtue of paragraph 17 of Schedule 18 to the Act shall be revoked.

Definitions and Interpretation

2. In this Direction, unless the contrary intention appears-

"Act" means the Communications Act 2003;

"Cambridge Water plc" means Cambridge Water plc (registered company number 03175861); and

"Ofcom" means the Office of Communications.

4. Except in so far as the context otherwise requires, words and phrases shall have the same meaning as in the Act, headings and titles shall be disregarded and expressions cognate with those referred to in this Direction shall be construed accordingly.

5. The Interpretation Act 1978 shall apply as if this Direction were an Act of Parliament.

6. This Direction shall take effect on the day it is published.

Explanatory Statement

1.1 On 19 June 2003, the Secretary of State granted Cambridge Water plc a licence under section 7 of the Telecommunications Act 1984 (the '1984 Act') authorising Cambridge Water plc to run a self provided telecommunications system (as defined in the 1984 Act) and applying the telecommunications code (as set out in Schedule 2 to the 1984 Act) to Cambridge Water plc.

1.2 Following a change in the regime for electronic communications after 25th July 2003, the telecommunications code is now known as the electronic communications code (the 'Code'), which is set out in Schedule 2 to the 1984 Act as amended by Schedule 3 to the Communications Act 2003 (the 'Act').

1.3 The Code applied to Cambridge Water plc post- 25th July 2003 by virtue of paragraph 17 of Schedule 18 to the Act, under which Cambridge Water plc is treated after 25 July 2003 as a person in whose case the Code applies by virtue of a direction (the 'Deemed Direction') under section 106(3) of the Act.

1.4 On 24 September 2009, Cambridge Water plc applied for the revocation of its Code powers under section 115(2) of the Act and Ofcom is now proposing to revoke the Deemed Direction.

1.5 On 15 October 2009, Ofcom published a draft Direction proposing to revoke the Code in Cambridge Water plc's case. Comments were sought by 16 November 2009. No comments were received.

1.6 Cambridge Water plc's application explained that it had not exercised any rights under the Code and did not need the powers provided for by the Code going forward.

1.7 In considering Cambridge Water plc's application, Ofcom considers that it has acted in accordance with its relevant duties set out in sections 3 and 4 of the Act in particular its duty to further the interests of citizens in relation to communications matters and to promote the interests of all persons who are citizens of the European Union. Ofcom does not believe that the revocation of Code powers in this case is contrary to its duties set out in the Act and will not prove to be detrimental to the interests of citizens in relation to communications matters.

1.8 For these reasons, Ofcom believes that it is now appropriate to revoke the Deemed Direction as requested by Cambridge Water plc. Thereafter, amongst other things, Cambridge Water plc would not be permitted to benefit from certain exemptions under Town and Country Planning legislation¹ and nor would it be able to carry out works in connection with the installation of apparatus in the streets without the need to obtain a street works licence under the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991.
