Guidance for completing this form

Who should use this form?

You may use this form to apply for a UK (including the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man) Amateur Radio (Foundation), (Intermediate) or (Full) Licence, including a Full (Club) and Full (Temporary Reciprocal) Licence.

General Information

Please note that if you have passed the RSGB examinations since June 2003, you are encouraged to apply for and print the Full, Intermediate and Foundation licences via the Ofcom licensing portal (<https://www.ofcom.org.uk/manage-your-licence/radiocommunication-licences/online-licensing-service>).

Conditions

Under the Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006, you must have a licence issued by Ofcom before you establish or use any amateur radio station or apparatus.

Communication preference

Where possible, we send correspondence to licensees electronically. This is quicker for you and cheaper for us. By applying on-line and providing your email address, we assume that you wish to receive correspondence and notifications relating to Wireless Telegraphy Act licences electronically and not on paper.

If you do not wish to receive documents electronically, you must opt out by ticking the box in the declaration.

Completing this form

When completing this application please refer to the notes and complete in dark ink in BLOCK CAPITALS.

All fields are mandatory unless stated otherwise. If you do not provide a telephone number and e-mail, it may delay the processing of this form. If you need to supply further information or clarification, please write on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this form.

Information for new applicants

To be eligible for an Amateur Radio (Full) Licence you must:

- Have passed the City & Guilds Radio Amateurs' Examination (RAE); or
- Have obtained a pass in RSGB Advanced Exam; or

To be eligible for an Amateur Radio (Intermediate) Licence you must either:

- Have attended the Novice Licence training course, have obtained a course completion slip (NLTC) and have passed the Novice (NRAE) Radio Amateurs' Examination. The date of completion of the training course must precede that of the pass for the examination; or
- Have obtained a pass in the RSGB Foundation and Intermediate examinations.

To be eligible for an Amateur Radio (Foundation) Licence you must:

- Have obtained a pass in the RSGB Foundation examination.

To be eligible for an Amateur Radio Full (Club) Licence you must:

- Already have an Amateur Radio (Full) Licence; and
- Supply details of two club officials (excluding yourself), each of whom must also hold an Amateur Radio (Full) Licence.

To be eligible for a Full (Temporary Reciprocal) Licence you must:

- Be a visitor to the United Kingdom and hold a qualifying Amateur Radio Licence issued by a country which does not participate in CEPT Recommendation T/R 61-02 but with which the UK has a bilateral reciprocal agreement for licensing radio amateurs (See Annex 1).

Requesting a call sign

If you would like to request a particular call sign in the current series of call signs indicated on the Ofcom website, you may do so when completing Section D of this form. To avoid the disappointment of the call sign you requested not being available you can list three call signs in order of preference. The call sign will only be issued to you once your completed application is received. Call signs are issued on a 'first come first served' basis. Please note that if you previously held a call sign, this will be re-issued to you and you will not be able to request another call sign.

Transfer of call signs are not normally permitted.

How we use your data

We require this information in order to carry out our spectrum licensing duties under the Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006.

Please see Ofcom's General Privacy Statement www.ofcom.org.uk/about-ofcom/foi-dp/general-privacy-statement for further information about how Ofcom handles your personal information and your corresponding rights.

Publication of name and mailing address

Ofcom only permits publication of your name and mailing address in a call book, where you have given consent by ticking the appropriate box in section H of this form. If you have not consented, only your call sign will be published. If this call book is compiled, stored and published by a third party, either in written form or by 'read only' computer disks, it will be made clear to the third party that the information will be disclosed to it solely for the publication of a call book and for no other purpose.
