

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

I do not agree. I have a very good relationship with all my neighbours but I still don't want my personal mail, my pay slips or parcels delivered to them. I don't wish them put into a position of responsibility nor temptation. I would ask that if I ordered something online and it didn't arrive yet was delivered to my neighbour what recourse would I have? do I take my neighbour to court? similarly if a parcel was damaged would Royal Mail take responsibility or blame my neighbour. The whole idea is bad.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Royal mail will be unaccountable for delivering mail and the condition it arrives in. Blame can be laid on the neighbour

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
