Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information where you asked about Q Radio 97.2 FM (Coleraine).

This was received by Ofcom on 7 March and it has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

We are interpreting your request as referring to the proposed relicensing of the Coleraine local commercial radio licence from 26 January 2019. Please see below our response to each of the questions you asked.

I should be grateful if you could forward a copy of all the correspondence/expression/application from Q Radio and associated persons/bodies with Ofcom in relation to renewing their licence in the Coleraine area.

Please see attached a letter from Q Radio sent to us on 8 December 2017 making a declaration of intent to apply for the local analogue commercial radio licence for Coleraine.

And can you provide any Ofcom declarations, conflicts & disclosures on the renewal application.

We do not hold any declarations, conflicts and disclosures in relation to the renewal application of Q Radio.

If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Jerin John

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Steve Gettings
The Secretary to the Corporation
Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
