

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No, it should be changed to an 'opt-in' rather than 'opt-out' scheme

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

I live in a block of flats and neighbours change all the time so I don't want my parcels being given to strangers. The front door to the flats is communal so I have no control over people removing the 'opt-out' sticker. My mailbox is very small and not secure - no room for a sticker on it. Also, I don't want to have to advertise to neighbours that I don't trust them!

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
