

Additional comments:

I believe that if a mobile phone provider wants to change the contract in any way, I should be allowed to immediately cancel my contract, this includes mid term price rises. It's unethical and immoral to make these changes, fixed means fixed!