Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information where you asked about Amateur Radio call book data licence.

This was received by Ofcom on 1 March 2018 and it has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act).

You asked:

Please provide me with a copy of the licence, terms and conditions or any other agreement that apply to the RSGB's use of OFCOM's amateur radio call book data.

Please note we have received a similar Freedom of Information request previously on 17 January, which is found on our website here:

If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Jerin John

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Steve Gettings
The Secretary to the Corporation
Ofcom
Riverside House

Ofcom
Riverside House
