

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

I do not agree. We have a neighbour who we would see as unsuitable to receive our mail as he is mentally ill but there is no ability to designate a "safe" neighbour in the proposal.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

The opt out procedure would require us to place a label on our door saying to criminals "the house is empty during postal delivery times help yourselves". It is also sending a negative message to your neighbours that we do not trust any of them with our mail.

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:

I believe the scheme should be an opt in not opt out service, issuing a sticker saying "If out please deliver to number
