

Companies with allocated number ranges that are no longer trading

The Communications Act 2003 grants Ofcom the power to allocate telephone numbers. In so doing, Ofcom is required to secure that best use is made of this resource. It is also our general duty to further the interests of consumers and the availability throughout the UK of a wide range of electronic communications services. Communications providers are also under an obligation to secure that numbers allocated to them are adopted or otherwise used effectively and efficiently.

The following providers have been allocated number ranges. These companies are now dissolved, in liquidation or have closed:

Ofcom intends to withdraw the numbers allocated to these companies. Before making the numbers available for alternative uses, we wish to ensure that they are not being used by other persons, either consumers or other Communications Providers. We are therefore seeking information from any affected party regarding current use of these numbers.

We invite in particular the following parties to make representations:

- Providers that have an interconnection agreement with and/or delivers any calls to a number within any of these blocks
- Persons using a number within any of these blocks
- Any other person that considers itself affected by the withdrawal of these allocations

Representations may be submitted no later than by Friday 24 January 2020, by email to numbering@ofcom.org.uk.

Please let us know if you require any further information.

Thank you for your assistance.
