Additional comments:

Question 1: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to 'adult-sex' material needs to be clarified? b) Do you agree with our proposed amendments to the rule on 'adult-sex' material (Proposed Rule 1.18 to replace Rule 1.24)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed amendments, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) We believe that strengthening the code with respect to both 'adult-sex' and sexual content would lead to a better outcome to Ofcom's stated goals than clarifying the code and introducing new rules in relation to sexual content. Given that current sanctions don't seem to be preventing breaches of the current code, we doubt that clarifying the code will lead to less breaches. Strengthening the code, however, would send a strong message to broadcasters about how important this issue is.

b) We are worried that the proposed clarification makes a very strong distinction between the intended purposes of 'adult-sex' and 'images and/or language of a strong sexual nature'. While we recognize the intended differentiation, clarifying what 'adult-sex' means as defined by the new proposals will lead to a relaxation of what 'images and/or language of a strong sexual nature' means. Given that the levels of arousal and stimulation are simply stronger when viewing 'adult-sex' material in comparison with consuming 'images and/or language of a strong sexual nature', and given that, particularly for younger viewers the 'levels' which bring about arousal and stimulation and could lead to the person being disturbed and/or possibly harmed are lower, the continuum should not be split so easily. This is particularly important because the main reason for these guidelines is to protect children.

c) The words 'Premium subscription services' placed at the beginning of the older definition served to clarify that 'adult-sex' material is meant primarily as a pay-per view service. We believe that if the definition is to change, it should at least emphasise this notion and thus categorise 'adult-sex' as being primarily of a commercial nature. Hence negatively defining other material as primarily educational, creative, entertaining and/or with artistic value.

Question 2: a) Do you consider that the introduction of a new rule in relation to material of a strong sexual nature is appropriate? b) Do you agree with our proposed rule on material of a strong sexual nature (proposed Rule 1.19)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new rule, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) to c) We believe the code should be strengthened in the sexual content section but also in the harm and offence section. The focus should be about protecting under 18s without putting the onus of control to justifying such content by referring to 'editorial justifications.' In addition we believe that in an over-sexualized culture it is crucial to reflect not only on what material is being demanded by the audience, but also in what way such material effects the development of our pre-teens and teens. Such consideration should be made by Ofcom in conjunction with other relevant bodies rather than the editors of content, whose possible only incentive is to create material which is appealing to the most amount of people without always considering the vulnerable. In addition please see answer to question 1 a) and b).

Question 3: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to material equivalent to the BBFC R-18 rating needs to be separated from the rule in relation to R-18 rated works? b) Do you agree with our proposed rule on material equivalent to the BBFC R-18 rating (proposed Rule 1.17)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new rule, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

We welcome this proposal.

Question 4: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to pre-watershed material needs to be clarified? b) Do you agree with our proposed amendments to the rule on pre-watershed material (proposed Rule 1.20 to replace Rule 1.17)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed amendments, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

b) We disagree with the dropping of the word 'inexplicit'. It significantly changes the meaning of the regulations. It is also a shame that the proposed change is not properly justified in the consultation document.

Question 5: a) Do you consider that the associated revisions are appropriate following the other rule revisions outlined above? b) Do you agree with our proposed associated revisions in Section One? c) If you do not agree with our proposed revisions, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:
