

Royal Mail seeks to avoid any responsibility for your mail violating the post office act sections
81 - 84. Your mail Is No Longer Safe With Them As Cost Spirals.

Read all about it: - <http://www.royalmail.com/delivery-to-neighbour>

Copy to MP Brandon Lewis for interest.

Dear Ofcom,

We are appalled at the suggestion letters and or parcels should be left with neighbours unless the recipients hop-in. This plan sneaked in under the cover of darkness, the olympics and other news items is now in the open.

We have just dealt with a Special Delivery to MP Brandon Lewis at the House of Commons. It was redirected to the constituency and left with others in the same building that were not the MP and/or his staff. These were original court documents now lost. The Royal Mail relinquished all responsibility. [See inserted copy evidence] "Nothing to do with us Gov."

We would suggest before this is rolled out across the country the caveat should be a hop-in renewed on a regular basis. In lovely middleclass areas one would think this practise is safe. Our experience is that it is not so. We also had an occasion when no signature was obtained for a recorded letter containing cash at the local police station. It was sponsoring a charity walk by a former Royal Marine, now a serving police inspector. There are already flaws in the Royal Mail system without adding to it.

Some neighbours will be criminals. On 'Sink Estates', it would be so easy for a 'Neighbour' to disclaim it was given to them. We have thousands of elderly veterans no in position to seek to recover mail not handed over. We have established above and with the compelling evidence the Royal Mail would take no responsibility. The idea is appalling but once introduced it would be very difficult if not impossible to rescind the operation.

Dear Mr A

Thank you for your e-mail about the delivery of Special Delivery™ Next Day items. I will be asking my senior team to investigate this for you straightaway.

Yours sincerely

Moya Greene

Chief Executive Officer

Dear Mr A,

Our post was being redirected to Great Yarmouth at this time. But please see below an email exchange I had earlier in the week with (redacted) at royal mail. He said the person who signed at Fastolff House, Great Yarmouth was a (redacted). There is no one by that name there.

(redacted)

We do believe we have correctly delivered your mailpiece to Fastolff House, 30 Regent Street, Great Yarmouth on 13th April 2012.

Dear Mr A,

Thank you for your recent e mails to Moya Greene, I have been asked to look into your concerns and respond to you. I am sorry you feel we have let you down, I know (redacted) has done a lot of work to investigate what happened with your item and I apologise if you feel he should have contacted you again. It was his understanding that he had suggested you should discuss this with (redacted) office as he believed we had delivered the item. Your item was received at the relevant Delivery Office for The House of Commons and was collected by their courier, (redacted), who signed for the mail at that time. He delivered the mail into the Parliament Postroom where it was identified that (redacted) had a redirection in place. The postroom staff applied additional postage to the item and forwarded it to the address in Great Yarmouth. These premises are multi occupied and our Postman has confirmed that he delivers mail for all the companies to one reception point, we do not deliver to individuals in the premises. I was disappointed by your comments about (redacted) is a respected member of our Chief Executive's correspondence team and worked hard to investigate the whereabouts of your item. We do believe we have correctly delivered your mailpiece to Fastolff House, 30 Regent Street, Great Yarmouth on 13th April 2012.

If I can be of any further assistance please do not hesitate to contact me.

Kind regards

(redacted)

Dear Mr A,

Unfortunately, it seems the documents you refer to below have never arrived at our office. The constituency office have checked with regards to a (redacted) and we have no knowledge of someone by that name.

I am very sorry that these were never delivered especially as you say they were originals.

If you have copies then please forward them to us at, 30 Regent Street, Great Yarmouth, NR30 1RR.

Kind regards

(redacted)

This is a small example of the scores of communications between Mr A, his MP and the Royal Mail. The very important documents have never been found. There are no copies. It leaves dangerous criminals engaged in serious organised crime walking the streets of Great Yarmouth and Waveney.
