

Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your query which has been forwarded to this team for response.

Ofcom launched two investigations into various editions of The Lobby under its procedures for investigating breaches of content standards for television and radio, and its procedures for the consideration and adjudication of fairness and privacy complaints, as reported on page 26 of Bulletin Issue 324 available here: https://www.ofcom.org.uk/_data/assets/pdf_file/0021/98031/Issue-324.pdf

These investigations are still in progress and will be reported in the Bulletin once concluded.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Steve Gettings
The Secretary to the Corporation
Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
