Dear Sara Winter

re: 2009 Ofcom Access services review

Audio description is a brilliant service that has completely revolutionised my enjoyment of television. It's a narrative that describes the action, body language, facial expressions or scenery - all things that I might otherwise miss.

I understand the Ofcom Access Services review includes three options for the future of audio description. I am requesting that Ofcom choose option two and increase audio description to 20% across all channels.

Audio description allows me to follow storylines I would otherwise miss, without it watching television would be another thing inaccessible to me.

Please take onboard my request for an increase of audio description to 20 per cent.

Yours sincerely
