Dear Sara Winter

Re: 2009 Ofcom Access services review

Audio description is a brilliant service that has completely revolutionised my enjoyment of television. It's a narrative that describes the action, body language, facial expressions or scenery - all things that I might otherwise miss.

I understand the Ofcom Access Services review includes three options for the future of audio description. I am requesting that Ofcom choose option two and increase audio description to 20% across all channels.

I have a wide range of interests and enjoy a broad range of TV programmes. Making audio description available through a diverse range of programmes would provide a fairer and more equal opportunity to watch programmes and share the experience with family and friends. Please allow me the choice and start with committing to a minimum of 20%.

Please take onboard my request for an increase of audio description to 20 per cent.

Yours sincerely
