

Request for Information

Thank you for your request for information dated 3 September about deployment of IPV6 which has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act.

You asked:

"I'm looking for information regarding deployment of ipv6 all over the world. i wonder if you have a government paper regarding the deployment of ipv6 in the uk, or any other paper that ofcom published regarding this issue".

Please refer to our Connected Nations Report 2015 which you can access here:

<http://stakeholders.ofcom.org.uk/market-data-research/market-data/infrastructure/connected-nations-2015/>

Ofcom also commissioned the following pieces of research into IPv6:

Study into UK IPv4 and IPv6 allocations (2014)

<http://stakeholders.ofcom.org.uk/binaries/research/technology-research/2014/rtfm.pdf>

Internet Addressing: IPv4 Exhaustion and the Transition to IPv6 (2013)

<http://stakeholders.ofcom.org.uk/binaries/research/technology-research/2013/internet-protocol.pdf>

I hope this information is helpful.

Kind regards
Julia Snape

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter.

There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Steve Gettings
The Secretary to the Corporation
Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
