

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No,

I believe the Post Office has a responsibility to securely deliver mail to all addressees and that this proposal has serious implications which could compromise this duty. I also object to being forced to effectively deface the front of my house with a sticker in order to opt out of the proposal. Default position if the proposal must go ahead is for opt-in to be optional rather than opt-out.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
