Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about Calling Line Identification and/or GSM Gateways.

This was received by Ofcom on 5 November and it has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked for:

All records of communications by Philip Rutnam on behalf of OFCOM to or from the UK mobile operators and The Home Office with reference to Calling Line Identification and/or GSM Gateways.

I note you made similar requests on 15 February 2016 to which we responded on 15 April 2016, and on 22 August 2008 to which we responded on 18 September 2008 although noting these earlier requests did not specifically refer to the Home Office. We have searched for information falling within the scope of the request and can confirm that we do not hold any additional communications or correspondence to what we have already provided to you.

If you have any queries, please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Jerin John

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Corporation Secretary
Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
