

Additional comments:

I do not think the opt out part is satisfactory as there are privacy concerns with the display of stickers. These stickers would be advertising your house to burglars. The opt out should be by Royal Mail maintaining its own confidential register, and respecting that.

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

Not until the opt-out part is improved to protect people's privacy.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
