

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No. I think this is only an excuse by Royal Mail to get members of the public to do their jobs for them. What if the neighbours are also out when a package is delivered? Where does it go then? And what if the neighbours are out when the person tries to retrieve the package? What if neighbours don't have space to store such packages?

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
