

Request for Information

Thank you for your request for information dated 19 January about Ofcom's staff which has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked:

How many/what percentage of OFCOMs staff, at present, are involved in content/editorial regulation and how many are involved in economic regulation?

We do not hold the information you have requested. The work carried out by Ofcom colleagues including our legal team crosses both content and editorial areas. We do not categorise or record work done into the separate areas you have asked for.

Please quote the above reference in any future communication.

Kind regards

Julia Snape

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exception cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Steve Gettings
The Secretary to the Corporation
Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
