Question 1: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to ?adult-sex? material needs to be clarified? b) Do you agree with our proposed amendments to the rule on ?adult-sex? material (Proposed Rule 1.18 to replace Rule 1.24)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed amendments, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) Yes

b) No

c) No good purpose is served by broadcasting this type of material in any form. Its very creation is degrading to those who take part.

Question 2: a) Do you consider that the introduction of a new rule in relation to material of a strong sexual nature is appropriate? b) Do you agree with our proposed rule on material of a strong sexual nature (proposed Rule 1.19)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new rule, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) Yes

b) No

c) Material of an explicit sexual nature should not be broadcast in trailers. This serves no good purpose. If the intention of the programme is to stimulate sexual arousal, this case is covered by rule 18. If this is not the case, then explicitly sexual material should not be used to entice viewers. The unavoidable consequence of using such material is that viewers who do not wish to be so bombarded cannot avoid it as they do not know what trailers will be broadcast when.

The ostensible fact that advertising which involves sexual imagery and language engenders more interest should not be interpreted as implying that people wish to be so enticed in the first place. Further, the fact that such advertising is likely to increase ratings for a new programme becomes an incentive to include scenes with such content gratuitously into new programmes in the first place, irrespective of issues like whether any artistic purpose is served.

Question 3: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to material equivalent to the BBFC R-18 rating needs to be separated from the rule in relation to R-18 rated works? b) Do you agree with our proposed rule on material equivalent to the BBFC R-18 rating (proposed Rule 1.17)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed new rule, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) No

b) No. I do not believe this material should be shown at all.

c) I believe that all R18 and equivalent material should be classified R18. I am very concerned that what was once R18 material is now being classified 18.

Question 4: a) Do you consider that the rule in relation to pre-watershed material needs to be clarified? b) Do you agree with our proposed amendments to the rule on pre-watershed material (proposed Rule 1.20 to replace Rule 1.17)? c) If you do not agree with our proposed amendments, please explain why and suggest alternative wording where appropriate.:

a) Yes

b) No

c) Sexual material cannot be justified pre-watershed. Parents should be given the right to decide whether and/or in what context they wish their children to be exposed to representations of sexual intercourse.
