Additional comments:

I have no interest in ever seeing any pay TV channel and would like to see encrypted Sports removed from Freeview as they are not free. Why cant those who want them buy a dish or watch them online? Frankly I am tired of the "little boy" in many and their obsession with football which is foisted on us all in one way or another. Want to watch soccer? Buy a ticket.

Question 3.1: Have we accurately represented the key developments in pay TV since 2010? Are there any other developments which you consider may be relevant to our assessment?:

No. Why are there pay channels on FREEview?

Question 4.1: Do you agree with our proposed analytical framework for identifying whether limited distribution of key content is a practice which may be prejudicial to fair and effective competition in pay TV services?:

If people want pay TV badly enough, they will seek it out. Let them.

Question 5.1: Do you agree with our assessment that sports content is an important driver of choice in pay TV services? If not please provide evidence to support your view.:

It probably is for those people obsessed with football and not for those who are not.

Question 5.2: Do you agree with our assessment that live Premier League matches represent key content in competition for pay TV services? If not please provide evidence to support your view.:

See 5.1

Question 5.3: Do you agree with our assessment that live Champions League matches also represent key content in competition for pay TV services, albeit to a lesser degree than Premier League content? If not please provide evidence to support your view. :

See 5.1

Question 5.4: Do you agree with our assessment of the importance of other sports events? If not please provide evidence to support your view.:

Not for me. I have simply stopped watching live Moto GP and the F1 races only on Sky.

Question 6.1: Do you agree with our assessment that limited distribution of Sky Sports may be prejudicial to fair and effective competition?:

Yes.

Question 6.2: Do you agree with our assessment that limited distribution of BT Sport is unlikely to be prejudicial to fair and effective competition?:

No. You should be even handed about pay sport.

Question 7.1: Do you agree with our assessment of Sky?s incentives to limit distribution of its key content? If not please explain why.:

Yes

Question 7.2: Do you agree with our assessment of BT?s incentives to limit distribution of its key content? If not please explain why.:

Yes

Question 8.1: Do you consider it appropriate to maintain some form of regulation on Sky in order to ensure fair and effective competition in pay TV? Please provide evidence to support your view.:

Yes

Question 8.2: Do you agree with the potential options for regulation we have identified? Do you believe there are other options we should consider?:

Why limit yourselves only to sport? Why not apply the same principles to SkyArts or SyFy?

Question 8.3: Do you consider that the WMO obligation placed on Sky is no longer required to ensure fair and effective competition in pay TV? Please provide evidence to support your view.:

Question 8.4: Do you agree with our assessment that it is unlikely to be appropriate to consider the imposition of regulation on BT to ensure fair and effective competition in pay TV at the current time? Please provide evidence to support your view.:
