

Additional comments:

It is wrong that the Post Office should implement an opt out policy, rather than an opt in. Further, I do not accept that I have to stick a notice permanently on my front door if I have opted out, I do not want stickers on my door.

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No.

Mail addressed to me should only be sent to me and not diverted anywhere else.

It could be valuable or personal and I would not wish the neighbour to be aware of it.

Further: the Post Office should not be allowed to abdicate responsibility for the delivery if it finds that the recipient is unavailable.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
