

Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No, Opt-out should be the default position, because stickers can be removed by anyone.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

We do not all live with perfect neighbours, and having to display an opt-out sticker could lead to bad feelings at the very least.

A cynical person might also think this is a win for royal mail as it could lead to greater sales of higher rate postal insurance when people post parcels.

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:
