18 December 2017

Ref: 00500237 Freedom of Information: Right to Know Request

Thank you for your further request. Your request was received on 1 December and we are dealing with it under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the FoI Act").

Under section 21 of the FoI Act, Ofcom is not required to provide information in response to a request if it is already reasonably accessible to you. The information you requested for individual breaches of Code rules is available in Ofcom's Broadcast and On Demand Bulletins here: <https://www.ofcom.org.uk/about-ofcom/latest/bulletins/broadcast-bulletins>.

Advertising scheduling cases Ofcom has considered under COSTA are recorded in a separate section of the bulletins, as listed in the contents page to each publication.

If you have any queries then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exception cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:
