Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about inspections of amateur radio stations which was received by Ofcom on 26 November and has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked:

Since 2010 until the date of this request how many inspections, of whatever nature, of amateur radio stations have been made by OFCOM staff or representatives of OFCOM.

Please provide numbers per year and include the full of the UK (Isle of Man etc)

We do not hold data prior to 2014.

Please see below data available from 2014 onwards:

Year	No. of Inspections	Nature of Inspections
2014	3	Equipment Inspections
2015	1	Equipment Inspection
2016	3	VDSL Interference Inspections
2017	1	Equipment Inspection
2017	1	VDSL Interference Inspection

I hope this information is of assistance.

If you have any queries, then please contact Information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Jerin John

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for undertaking internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact:

Steve Gettings
The Secretary to the Corporation
Ofcom
Riverside House
2a Southwark Bridge Road
London SE1 9HA

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Information Commissioner's Office
Wycliffe House
Water Lane
Wilmslow
Cheshire
