Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information where you asked about fines imposed on companies by Ofcom.

This was received by Ofcom on 14 August and it has been considered under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You asked:

Please supply a breakdown of fines given to companies in the financial years 2015-16, 16-17 and 17-18 and how much was collected.

Please visit our website which provides information about other financial reporting and, in particular, a breakdown of financial penalties by year¹. Financial penalties received by Ofcom is available in our Section 400 Licence Fees and Penalties Accounts².

I hope this information is of assistance. If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Jerin John

If you are unhappy with the response or level of service you have received in relation to your request from Ofcom, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be treated as a formal complaint and will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will acknowledge the complaint and inform you of the date by which you might expect to be told the outcome.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.
