

Many people have landline telephone services such as TALK TALK offer which have an inclusive rate and all calls to landlines are free. However calls to 08* 030* numbers are charged.

For this reason all organisations and business should be obliged to publish a local or national landline number on which they may be contacted. It is not acceptable for them to simply move to 030* numbers as these will still incur a charge.