Question 1:Do you agree that Ofcom should grant approval to Royal Mail for the Delivery to Neighbour service? If not please explain your answer. :

No. We live in an age where a large portion of the population do not know their neighbours at all. By granting approval you would effectively be giving total strangers access to personal information. Not everybody is a law abiding member of the public and some individuals/neighbours could use this opportunity to gain personal information in order to commit a criminal offence, fraudulently obtain good, steal identities etc.

Question 2:Are there other consequences following the roll out of the service across the UK that we have not included in our assessment? If so, please explain.:

See question 1 above.

Question 3:Do you have any comments on the scope and wording of the proposed Notification and approval:

See question 1 above.
