Freedom of Information: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about Pfizer documents and MSM. We received this request on 9 May 2022 and have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

You asked:

I would like to know has Ofcom anything to do with why the MSM is NOT covering the Pfizer documents release? Have Ofcom warned the MSM about talking about vaccine side effects in any way and what would happen to a radio presenter or radio station that did discuss the Pfizer documents and the vaccine side effects?

Our response

Ofcom does not hold this information. Ofcom has not had any dealings with MSM as this is outside of our jurisdiction.

You may find it helpful to look at Ofcom guidance to its regulated services and what our role is in broadcast standards covering coronavirus and the pandemic here.

If you have any queries, then please contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk. Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Katherine Childs

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Further information about this, and the internal review process can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office here. Alternatively, the Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
