Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information concerning an Ofcom standards complaint, reference 01653825. Your request was received on 21 August 2023 and we have considered it under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “FOI Act”).

Ofcom’s complaints processes

Before responding to your question, we would like to provide some background information on Ofcom’s complaints procedures and reporting.

In line with our published complaints procedures, Ofcom does not as a matter of course write back to individual complainants to explain the outcome and the reasoning behind its decisions, but all complaints are logged and acknowledged, and decisions are published on our website.

Ofcom assesses every complaint it receives. Based on an initial assessment of the complaint and a consideration of the related content, Ofcom will consider whether there may have been a breach of the Broadcasting Code (or other Ofcom codes or licence conditions). In cases where Ofcom considers there may have been a breach, it will launch an investigation.

Ofcom’s Broadcast and On Demand Bulletin (the “Bulletin”), published every fortnight on our website, includes decisions about the complaints we have considered. The Bulletin covers a range of cases, including those which Ofcom has escalated for full investigation, and those which, after careful assessment, Ofcom has decided not to pursue because they did not raise issues warranting investigation. The Bulletins can be accessed on our website here.

Your request & our response

I write with reference to my complaint (Reference 01653825) of 1st August 2023, as detailed below, which I have not received a response to.

I would like the following information under the freedom of information act.

- 1. Confirmation that my complaint was received, read, registered and considered.*
- 2. Confirmation that my complaint is being investigated.*
- 3. If my complaint is not being investigated, I would like the reasons why it is not.*

4. Confirmation that Ofcom are aware my complaint relates to 'hate speech'.

5. Confirmation that Ofcom viewed the offending section of the program referred to in my complaint.

We can confirm that Ofcom received your complaint on 1 August 2023 and after careful assessment of your complaint, the programme, and the specific comments you identified, we did not consider the material raised issues warranting investigation under the Ofcom Broadcasting Code. We took account of your concerns about hate speech, but did not consider this material fulfilled Ofcom's definition of hate speech, or exceeded generally accepted standards on this occasion.

In accordance with our procedures, that decision was published in the Standards section for complaints assessed and not pursued on our website, in Bulletin issue 480.

6. A copy of all correspondence, notes, minutes and any other written document/s relating to my complaint.

We hold internal records related to Ofcom's consideration of your complaint. However, we are unable to provide this information to you as we consider it to be exempt from disclosure pursuant to section 44 of the FOI Act. This is because we are prohibited under section 393 of the Communications Act 2003 from disclosing information which relates to a business (in this case, GB News) which we have obtained in the course of exercising our functions in relation to broadcast standards, unless we have the consent of that business or one of the statutory gateways under section 393(2) of the Communications Act 2003 is met, neither of which applies here. Section 44 is an absolute exemption and does not require a public interest test.

7. A copy of the decision taken regarding my complaint.

Details are available as published in the Bulletin. For ease of reference a screenshot of the entry for your complaint is below:

Service	Programme	Transmission Date	Issue	Complaints
GB News	Dan Wootton Tonight	25 July 2023	Generally accepted standards	1

There is a 'Back to the Hub' button in the top right corner of the screenshot.

8. Confirmation that GB News was notified of my complaint.

9. Confirmation that Ms Rebecca Reid was notified of my complaint.

10. All correspondence to or from GB News regarding my complaint.

11. All correspondence to from Ms Rebecca Reid regarding my complaint.

Given that Ofcom's initial assessment of your complaint did not identify grounds to pursue, Ofcom did not notify the broadcaster or programme participants, and holds no correspondence with those parties.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely

Information Requests

If you are unhappy with the response you have received in relation to your request for information and/or consider that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you ask us for an internal review of our decision, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom.

The following outcomes are possible:

- the original decision is upheld; or
- the original decision is reversed or modified.

Timing

If you wish to exercise your right to an internal review you should contact us within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for responding to internal reviews and it will depend upon the complexity of the case. However, we aim to conclude all such reviews within 20 working days, and up to 40 working days in exceptional cases. We will keep you informed of the progress of any such review. If you wish to request an internal review, you should contact information.requests@ofcom.org.uk

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Further information about this, and the internal review process can be found on the Information Commissioner's Office here. Alternatively, the Information Commissioner can be contacted at:
