Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about full fibre broadband in CH64.

We received this request on 24 March 2025 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the FOI Act").

Your request

"When will Full-Fiber broadband option be available in my area. My postcode is CH64"

Our response

We do hold some information on the plans of infrastructure providers to deploy full fibre broadband in the CH64 postcode sector. Data on plans for full-fibre and gigabit-capable network deployment up to May 2027 is aggregated at the Local Authority level and published on our website. We are unable to disclose further details as we consider that disclosure of this information is exempt under the FOI Act. In particular, section 44(1)(a) of the FOI Act exempts disclosure of information if its disclosure is prohibited under another enactment. Ofcom is prohibited under section 393(1) of the Communications Act 2003 ('the Communications Act') from disclosing information about a business which we have obtained in the course of exercising a power conferred by the Communications Act among others, unless we have the consent of that business or one of the statutory gateways under section 393(2) of the Communications Act is met, neither of which applies here. Section 44 of the FOI Act is an absolute exemption and therefore is not subject to a public interest test.

You may wish to refer to the thinkbroadband Local Broadband page where, under the "Search by postcode" tab, you can enter your postcode to see which providers are nearby. You can then use an online broadband checker from these providers, for further information regarding their current full-fibre broadband (FTTP) coverage – some also provide information on future plans.

We hope this information is helpful. If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress. Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
